3. Action on the minutes of August 20, 2024

On a MOTION by D. Roberts seconded by T. Caputi, the Board voted (4-0-1) to approve the August 20, 2024, meeting minutes as presented. A. Crimmins abstained.

4. Public Hearings

a. Appeal by Neal Williams seeking a front yard variance of Zoning Regulation Section 5.1 to construct a 25'x22' addition; 49 Glen Road. File Z10-24-05.

Applicant and property owner Neal Williams was present to discuss the application. He purchased the house in 2002 and soon after, relocated the driveway from Canton Road to Glen Road. The house is set back 50 feet from its closest point from these front property lines and about 90 feet from the side property line to the east and about 70 feet from the side property line to the south. A 12-foot variance was granted in 2010 for an addition; however, it was never built as the applicant realized the proposed structure was too small. Mr. Williams would like to construct a 550 square foot addition to the north side of his house, 32 feet from the front property line. The required front yard is 50 feet; therefore, a variance of 18 feet is necessary. The well is located to the rear (east) of the house, while the septic tank and leaching fields are located in the front (west) between the house and Canton Road. There was no public comment, and the public hearing closed at 7:12p.m.

b. Appeal by Neal Williams seeking a front yard variance of Zoning Regulation Section 5.1 to construct a 20'x25' detached garage; 49 Glen Road. File Z10-24-05.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Zoning Board of Appeals

CC: Patrick Hasiuk

FROM: Abby Kenyon, Director of Community Development

DATE: January 15, 2024

RE: Appeal by Patrick Hasiuk seeking a front yard variance of Zoning Regulation Section 5.1 to construct a 1,600 square foot barn; 200 Silver Street. File Z01-25-01.

In July, the Planning and Zoning Commission approved an application for a Special Permit under Zoning Regulations Section 8.1.3.4 for a garage in excess of 1,000 square feet for property located at 200 Silver Street. Specifically, the Commission approved a 1,600 square foot garage, measuring 50 feet by 32 feet overall, which was inclusive of two overhangs/lean-tos on either side, which measure 10 feet by 23 feet. As shown on the plot plan that was presented to the Commission with the Special Permit application, the structure would be set back 50 feet from the front property, which was in compliance with the regulations.

Following Commission approval, a building permit was issued to the property owner and the structure was built. Upon inspection, the front yard setback was questioned as it appeared that the structure was not constructed in compliance with the required 50-foot front yard. The applicant provided measurements and as shown on the plot plan submitted with this variance application to the Zoning Board of Appeals, at its closest point, the structure is 35 feet back from the front property line, therefore a variance of 15 feet is requested.

In the application materials, the applicant has noted challenges with the topography of the property, drainage issues to the rear, and the irregularly shaped lot. Letters have also been provided by adjacent property owners.

The applicant will be at the meeting to explain the request and answer any questions the Board may have.

Applicant's Narrative

January 3, 2025

Dear Members of the Board:

I am proposing a request for a 15 foot variance, for our barn from the current zoning regulations. The barn would be set back 36 feet from the front property line (51 feet from the street). The request for the variance is due to the following (please refer to photos/other documents as well):

The topography/slope of our property limits us to building on one side of our property, and that is why we built the barn on the current location.

We have a front and rear yard setback, which confines where the barn can be placed (as opposed to a side yard where the setback is not as large).

There is a drainage issue from the slope of the land on the rear end of our property, a natural gully running the length of our property has been alleviating the water run off. We do not want to touch/change the course of it as it's in the woods itself. We have dealt with our finished basement flooding. Our son got extremely sick and after seeing multiple doctors/specialists we found out he had mold in his system, and that our basement had mold behind the walls. We hired a company to remove the finished basement and treat the mold for remediation (costing us thousands of dollars). We opened a permit with the town as well that has been closed since. We constantly keep the gully clean from trees/sticks/leaves so the water may run off to prevent further flooding in our basement.

Please consider the request, thank you.

Subject: Hasiuk New Barn/Garage Placement at 200 Silver Street

Abigail and concerned Board Members,

Writing this letter in reference to the new barn built at 200 Silver Street, North Granby. We understand there is an issue with the town zoning.

We are neighbors of the Hasiuk family, living across the street at 187 Silver Street. Pat came over and explained the variance issue with the barn and the distance to the street. We are in support of leaving the barn in its current location.

The Hasiuk's have been tastefully remodeling their house and property and the barn addition fits in well with the scenic Silver Street environment. Given the circumstances and the unique property shape it makes sense to leave the new barn addition located as is.

Sincerely,

Gary and Anne Adamson

Re: Barn at 200 Silver Street

Dear Ms. Kenyon,

My neighbor, Patrick Hasiuk, has brought to my attention that the new barn he recently completed at 200 Silver Street was constructed approximately 15 feet short of the minimum 50 foot setback required by code, as measured from the west-most pilotis that support the sheltered area on that side of structure to the Silver Street right-of-way, with the foundation and west-facing exterior wall being about 2 feet short of the setback. He explained to me that this was done entirely by accident, having otherwise made a good faith effort to obtain all applicable permits, variances, and inspections.

I have personally inspected the current site, have observed it from the vantage point of my own home at 205 Silver Street, and have tried to imagine it set further back from the road in compliance with the building code. I have come to the conclusion that the barn in its current location engenders no detracton from the appearance of the property or the neighborhood, does not encroach upon my property, nor does it present any hazards. Patrick has made a fine effort to preserve the mature trees on the site, such that the barn looks as if it had always been there. Moving the barn further back to bring it into compliance with the set back code would not improve the aesthetics of the site nor provide relief from any perceived encroachment. Indeed, moving it back would only detract from its current appearance because of the need to remove additional mature trees to the east of the site.

In consideration of the above, I have no objections to the barn remaining in its current location.

Yours,

John Boyer
